Nebraska
Well Drillers Short Course and Organization of a State Well Drillers' Association

February 28, March 1, 1929

Sponsored by the State Geological Survey of the University of Nebraska

Rooms 108 and 110, Nebraska Hall
12th & T St.

Open to all Well Drillers of Nebraska

Purpose: The organization of a State Well Drillers' Association, and the discussion of problems of interest to Nebraska well drillers.

Subjects: Water-bearing formations of Nebraska. Source, depth and quality of well water in Nebraska. Methods of drilling and finishing wells in Nebraska. Open discussion, questions and answers.
Program

Thursday, February 28th

9:30 a.m.—Registration in Room 108, Nebraska Hall

10:00 a.m.—Welcome, Response, getting acquainted, Room 110, Nebraska Hall

11:00 a.m.—Plan of organization based on that of other states

11:30 a.m.—Appointment of committees

12:00 Noon—Lunch at the Chamber of Commerce

2:00 p.m.—Illustrated Address, by Engineer A. G. Fiedler, of the U. S. Geological Survey, Washington, D. C.

3:30 p.m.—Questions, discussion

4:00 p.m.—Visit the Laboratories of the College of Engineering

7:15 p.m.—Illustrated Address, The Water-bearing Formations of Nebraska, by Dean G. E. Condra, State Geologist

8:15 p.m.—Questions and answers

Friday, March 1st

Room 110, Nebraska Hall

9:30 a.m.—Well Drilling Methods, the speaker to be supplied

10:00 a.m.—Questions and discussion

11:00 a.m.—Well Drilling Problems, discussion by Nebraska drillers

12:00 Noon—Lunch at the Lincoln Chamber of Commerce

2:00 p.m.—Committee reports

2:30 p.m.—Election of Officers and unfinished business

3:00 p.m.—Trips to the Engineering Department of the College of Agriculture and to the Capitol

6:30 p.m.—Banquet and Fun, the place to be announced

Note: This short course and the organization of a State Association will be especially helpful to Nebraska well drillers. The procedure will be practical, above-board and to the point. Come for business, for a good time, and for a closing banquet that will make you happy for a year.

Notify Dean G. E. Condra, at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, that you are to be with us February 28 and March 1st, and do so as early as possible.

Officers
President, H. H. Brown, Blair, Nebraska
Sec'y-Treas., Percy Stewart, Lincoln, Nebraska