Twenty-Second Annual
Nebraska Well Drillers
and
Pump Installers Workshop
January 13-14, 1988

Ramada Inn—Kearney, Nebraska

Sponsored by
Conservation and Survey Division
Institute of Agriculture and Natural Resources
University of Nebraska-Lincoln
and
Nebraska Well Drillers Association
22nd ANNUAL NEBRASKA WELL DRILLERS AND PUMP INSTALLERS WORKSHOP

January 13-14, 1988

WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 13, 1988
Moderator: Duane Eversoll

8:15 a.m. Registration
8:45 Welcome - Perry B. Wigley
9:00 Groundwater Geology of Nebraska -
Marv Carlson and James Goike
10:30 COFFEE
11:00 Map Reading - Perry B. Wigley
11:45 LUNCH
1:00 p.m. Water Well Construction, Pump Installation
Standards - Bill Lee
2:30 Exercise on Standards and Geology -
Lee Becker
3:00 COFFEE
3:30 Monitoring Wells
5:00 ADJOURN
6:00 Social Hour
7:00 DINNER - Cattlemen's Mining Company
(Transportation provided)

THURSDAY, JANUARY 14, 1988

8:15 Nebraska Well Drillers Association -
Lee Orton
9:00 COFFEE
9:15 Pump Installation - Wayne Madsen
10:15 Continuing Education and Examination Sections -
Jack Daniels
11:15 Meeting Review and Wrap-up - Lee Orton
12:00 ADJOURN

SPEAKERS

Duane A. Eversoll, Research Geologist and Assistant to the Director, Conservation and Survey Division,
Institute of Agriculture & Natural Resources, UNL

Perry B. Wigley, Director, Conservation and Survey Division,
Institute of Agriculture & Natural Resources, UNL

Marvin Carlson, Research Geologist, Conservation and Survey
Division, Institute of Agriculture & Natural Resources, UNL

James Goike, Research Hydrogeologist, Conservation and Survey Division, Institute of Agriculture & Natural Resources, UNL

William Lee, Chief, Water and Wastewater Section, Division of Environmental Health and Housing Surveillance,
State Department of Health, Lincoln, NE

Lee Becker, State Hydrologist, State Department of Water Resources, Lincoln, NE

Jack Daniels, Director, Division of Environmental Health and Housing Surveillance, Nebraska Department of Health,
Lincoln, NE

Lee Orton, Executive Director, Nebraska Well Drillers
Association, Lincoln, NE

Wayne Madsen, Owner, Madsen's Well Service, Trenton, NE